

December | 2012

Kevin Flynn, MPP for Oakville and children participating in one of the after-school programs of ActiveChefs.

Connecting with Ontarians

A two-year, $135,500 OTF grant made this summer has proven to be the right ingredient for ActiveChefs. The funds will bring the Junior Chef program for children ages six to 11 into neighbourhoods in Oakville and Burlington. > More

OTF Design Lab: A process of discovery towards stronger youth social entrepreneurship

Future Fund Design Lab

The Foundation continues its new approach to cultivate innovative ideas of organizations looking to foster social entrepreneurship.

> More

New OTF Strategic Priorities: What do they mean for applicants?

If your not-for-profit organization will submit a grant application by March 1, 2013, know that OTF is now guided by updated sector priorities. > More...

Also in this edition...

> OTF invests in 425 organizations

> Dr. Dev Sainani named new Chair of Ontario Trillium Foundation

> Two Minutes with Two Volunteers

> Food Security is food for thought

> Past CEO awarded LG Medal of Distinction

> "Say WHAT?" Social Entrepreneurship explained

Andrea Cohen, CEO

Andrea
Cohen

Is growth an essential component to sustainability for not-for-profits? It depends...

> More...

Not the only immigrant story

Rose de
Veyra

In the latest OTF blog, guest writer Rose de Veyra explains that it takes two to build immigrant inclusive workplaces.

> More...

Share!

